

Media coverage

Evening Telegraph , 25 January 2018

Print (page 43)

A village school choir were on song recently when they joined celebrity guests and almost 7,000 youngsters from schools across the Midlands for a show-stopping performance at Birmingham's prestigious Genting Arena.

The 22-strong Cottingham C of E Primary School Choir was taking part in 'Young Voices', an annual charity concert that brings young people together to sing in harmony, accompanied by backing bands and guest artists that this year included a capella group The M4GNETS and soul singer Natalie Williams.