Dear Parent/Carer

Year 6 Events

As you know, we have been planning various events that the year 6 children will enjoy during their last term in primary school. As we are about to embark upon the last term, I wanted to update you on our plans for a memorable term. Dates and activities will always be subject to change and we will of course keep you posted.

Thank you also to those of you who offered to help with the year 6 leavers book, hoodies, and decorations at picnic on the playground. When they arrive, the children are welcome to wear their (named) hoodies for the remainder of the term!

At the end of the term, Mrs Wason and I announced the parts in the end of year production of 'Annie.' All children should have taken home with them a script that is theirs to keep, look after and bring back daily. It is the responsibility of the children to learn their lines in full and also research and provide their costume. Below are some dates for your diary. Children will be told which cast they will perform in (Watch this space).

Friday 26th May – Children given parts and informed to learn lines and research costume.

Wednesday 14th June – Children visit Nottingham to watch 'Annie' featuring Craig Revel Horwood. Children will need a packed lunch/drink (No fizzy drinks). Children are welcome to bring £10 spending money, maybe buy a programme, that they are to look after.

Monday 10th July – First dress rehearsal of Annie performed to KS1 and invited guests.

Tuesday 11th July – CAST A 1:30pm matinee performance of Annie (Ticket details to follow)

Wednesday 12th July – CAST B 6:30pm evening performance of Annie (Ticket details to follow)
